

Symposium on recognition, prevention and control of work-related cardiovascular disorders

Programme

Day 1: Monday 22 March 2010

09.00-10.00	Registration & Welcome Coffee
10.00-10.30	Opening Words of Welcome. Dr. Mia Latta, Director of NIVA Greetings from ICOH. Professor Jorma Rantanen, Past President, ICOH
	Chair: Professor Jorma Rantanen, Finland
10.30-11.15	Global Epidemic of Cardiovascular Mortality; Evidence on Impact by Prevention and Health Promotion Professor Pekka Puska, Director General, National Institute of Health and Welfare, Finland. President, World Heart Federation
11.15-11.30	Discussion
11.30-12.15	Socio-economic Determinants of Cardiovascular Morbidity and Mortality Professor Veikko Salomaa, National Institute of Health and Welfare, Finland.
12.15-12.30	Discussion
12.30-14.00	Lunch and Posters by Participants
	Chair: Professor Christer Hogstedt, Sweden
14.00-14.30	Attribution by Work to Cardiovascular Morbidity and Mortality Ass. Professor Jos Verbeek, Coronel Institute of Occupational Health, University of Amsterdam, the Netherlands and Finnish Institute of Occupational health, Kuopio, Finland
14.30-14.40	Discussion
14.40-15.10	Economic Appraisal of Work-related Cardiovascular Diseases Professor Guy Ahonen, Finnish Institute of Occupational Health
15.10-15.20	Discussion
15.20-15.45	Coffee

15.45- 16.30	Work-related Cardiovascular Diseases and Insurance Compensation Professor Seong Kyu-Kang KOSHA, Korea
16.30-16.45	Discussion
19.00-	Social Dinner

Day 2: Tuesday 23 March 2010

	Chair: Professor Seong Kyu-Kang, Korea
09.00- 09.45	Impact of Management Culture, Leadership and Organization on Cardiovascular Health of Workers Professor Johannes Siegrist, University of Dusseldorf, Germany
09.45-10.00	Discussion
10.00-10.45	Return to Work after Cardiovascular Events; Methods and Impacts Professor Ass. Professor Carel Hushof, Coronel Institute of Occupational Health, University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands (to be confirmed)
11.15-11.30	Discussion
11.30-11.45	Coffee
11.45-12.20	Psychosocial Factors at Work and Cardiovascular Disorders Professor Mika Kivimäki, Finnish Institute of Occupational Health, University of Helsinki, Finland & London University College, UK
12.20-12.30	Discussion
12.30-14.00	Lunch and viewing Posters by Participants
	Chair: Professor Helena Taskinen
14.00-14.30	Shift work, Working Hours, Sleep and Cardiovascular Morbidity Professor Mikko Härmä, Finnish Institute of Occupational Health
14.30-14.40	Discussion
14.40-15.00	Coffee
15.00-15.30	Chemical and Physical Factors and Work-related Cardiovascular Disorders Professor Jorma Rantanen, University of Jyväskylä, Finland & ICOH
15.30-15.40	Discussion
15.40- 16.00	Viewing Posters by Participants
17.30-18.30	Sauna & relaxation
19.00-	Symposium Dinner

Day 3: Wednesday 24 March 2010

	Chair: Professor Mikko Härmä, Finland
09.00- 09.30	Physical Workload and Cardiovascular Morbidity Dr. Harri Lindholm MD, Medical Specialist, Finnish Institute of Occupational Health, Centre of Expertise for Health and Work Ability
09.30-09.40	Discussion
09.40-10.10	Self-reported vs. expert assessed morbidity from work-related cardiovascular diseases Professor Arpo Aromaa MD, PhD, National Institute of Health and Welfare, Finland
10.10-10.20	Discussion
10.20-10.50	Role of Occupational Health Services in Prevention of Work-related Cardiovascular Disorders Professor Helena Taskinen, Finnish Institute of Occupational Health
10.50-11.00	Discussion
11.00-11.20	Coffee
	Chair: Professor Jorma Rantanen, Finland
11.20-11.40	Future Research Needs Psychosocial: Professor Mika Kivimäki, Finnish Institute of Occupational Health, University of Helsinki, Finland & London University College, UK
11.40-12.00	Medical: Professor Christer Hogstedt, National Institute of Public Health, Sweden
12.00-12.30	General discussion
12.30-12.40	Closing of the Symposium Dr. Mia Latta, Director, NIVA Professor Jorma Rantanen, ICOH
13.00-14.00	Lunch