

Flexicurity and Occupational Health

13-15 October 2010

Vilvorde Kursuscenter, Charlottenlund (Copenhagen), Denmark

Preliminary Programme

Day 1 Setting the framework: flexicurity as a concept

08.00-08.45	Registration and coffee
8.45-09.00	Opening of the course	Mia Latta
09.00-10.00	Presentation of the workshop leader, participants, and aims of the course	Professor Henning Jørgensen
10.00-11.15	Flexicurity as an analytical concept	Professor Henning Jørgensen
11.15-12.00	Discussion
12.00-13.00	lunch
13.00-14.00	Flexicurity as a normative model: The EU concept and its prospects	Professor Thomas Wilthagen
14.00-14.30	Discussion
14.30-15.00	Coffee break
15.00-17.00	Group work
19.00-	Dinner

Day 2 Flexicurity, the company level and occupational health

09.00-10.00	The Danish and the Dutch flexicurity systems and the role of active labour market policies	Professor Henning Jørgensen
10.00-11.00	Integrating the occupational health perspective into flexicurity	Professor Jukka Vuori
11.00-11.30	Coffee break
11.30-12.00	Results of the "Health in Restructuring: Innovative Approaches and Policy Recommendations" (HIRES) project for DG Employment, social affairs, and equal opportunities	Professor Thomas Kieselbach
12.00-13.00	Lunch
13.00-14.00	Flexicurity as a moderator of the relationship between job insecurity and psychological well-being	Dr. Brendan Burchell
14.00-14.30	Discussion
14.30-15.00	Coffee break
15.00-17.30	Group work
17.30-18.00	Discussion and summing up
19.30-	Course dinner

Day 3 Flexicurity, recession and room of manoeuvre

09.00-10.15	Flexicurity in times of economic recession: successful labour market approaches	Per Kongshøj Madsen
10.15-10.45	Coffee break
10.45-12.15	Panel discussion (incl. question time)	Henning Jørgensen, Per Kongshøj Madsen, Brendan Burchell
12.15-12.30	Concluding reflection	Henning Jørgensen
12.30-13.30	Lunch	